Speech by Barry Douglas at the S/M-Leather-Fetish Conference

Mellon Auditorium, Washington, DC
April 24, 1993

Photos By Marcus-Jay Wonacott

(Barry Douglas was a member of the National Executive Committee of the 1993 March on Washington for Lesbian, Gay, Bi Equal Rights and Liberation and central organizer of the S/M-Leather-Fetish Contingent. This speech was delivered during the closing plenary of the contingent's national conference, attended by 1600 people.)

There are moments in history when opportunity presents itself, and we have to act. This is such a moment. S/M-Leather-Fetish people—you—and I—are part of a movement who's moment is now.

We can move forward. We can seize the day, or we party through it and let the time go by. Our opportunity will be wasted. Our movement will be remembered as a fad.

We last met in this hall in connection with the 1987 March on Washington. The main topics of discussion then were organizing and coming out. Well, we've organized. There are now hundreds of groups and our organizations can be found in both big and small towns.

And we've certainly come out. From the
